

FIFTH ARREST IN MYSTERY OF THE SUIT CASE

Mrs. Dean, Keeper of House in Roxbury Where Body of the Chorus Girl, Susan Geary, Was Cut Up, is in Jail.

SEARCHING HARBOR FOR GIRL'S HEAD

Acting On the Confession of William Howard, Boston
Police Yesterday Afternoon Arrested Dr. Percy McLeod.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Dr. Percy D. McLeod, who was arrested yesterday for connection with the dress suit case murder mystery, was arraigned in the municipal court this morning and held in $20,000 bail for appearance on November 10. Later Judge Burke of the municipal court issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Dean, keeper of the house in Roxbury where Susan Geary died.

Meanwhile the police are continuing the search of the harbor for the head of the murdered girl. By the confession of William Howard, one of the two men arrested in New York, the head was placed in the girl's own satchel and dropped into the harbor. The satchel was weighted with lead. The police were told approximately where the head was dropped and they expected to find it. The police boat watchman is dragging the bottom of the harbor along the path of the North ferry to East Boston.

Believe Nathan Knew of Operation.
Morris Nathan, the lover of the dead girl, who was arrested in Pittsburgh last Sunday night and brought to this city in a state of collapse, but is not yet in a condition to be brought into court. Nathan will probably be arraigned on Monday.

While at first the police were of the opinion that Nathan was not directly connected with the case, they now say that Nathan conducted the negotiations with the proprietors of the Tremont street establishment, the place with which Crawford is connected, and that he was fully aware of the result of the operation upon the Geary girl.

Charged Dr. McLeod Specifically.
Chief Warrington informed the officials here that the confession of Crawford in New York included the specific accusation that Dr. McLeod was the person who dismembered the body of the chorus girl. Immediately upon receipt of this message an inspector called up the doctor's office on the telephone and made an appointment. The inspector did not disclose that he was a police official. The physician kept the appointment and was at once arrested and removed to police headquarters. Captain Dugan questioned the arrested doctor, but the latter declined to discuss the case in any way.

From Captain Dugan it was learned that Friday night two headquarters inspectors had visited Dr. McLeod at his home. They drove him to the office of Parkbrook, Berkman, who sold the suit cases. The parkbroker had stated that Dr. McLeod looked like the man who purchased the cases, although he would not be positive that the doctor was in fact the man.

During the drive, according to Captain Dugan, Dr. McLeod expressed the opinion that a second operation, such as was performed upon the victim of the suit case mystery, would necessitate the assistance of three or four men in addition to the operating physician. The second operation would have been performed for the purpose of saving the girl's life.

Arrest of Dr. McLeod.
Is a Physician of Reputation, and Graduate of Harvard.

Boston, Nov. 4.—Percy DeMille McLeod, M. D., a Back Bay physician of national reputation and with a large and fashionable practice, was arrested yesterday at his office, No. 187 Huntington avenue, by Captain Joseph Dugan of police headquarters, charged with complicity in the death of Susan Geary, the victim of the famous suit case mystery.

His arrest followed the confession in New York of Louis W. Crawford, son-in-law of Mrs. "Dr." Jane E. Bishop, and William Howard, who are under arrest in that city and have told of disposing of the body.

Dr. McLeod, it is understood has been indicted as the man who performed a desperate effort to save her life, and failing, dismembered her body.

The name of Dr. McLeod was furnished Superintendent Percé and Chief Inspector Watts, who are in New York in connection with the murder. They telegraphed it to this city and the arrest speedily followed.

Dr. McLeod, who is thirty-six years old, of fine appearance, a wearer of fashionable apparel, and recognized as a practitioner of high standing, is a graduate of the Harvard Medical School of 1894. He then entered the city hospital as a house surgeon. He completed a post-graduate course there in 1896.

Since that time he has attained a national standing as a gynecologist. He is a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, having applied for a physician's certificate on December 27, 1894, which was granted on January 8, 1895.

The arrest was made very quietly. Captain Dugan and a headquarters man, both in civilian clothing, called at his office late in the afternoon.

They informed him he was wanted at headquarters to reply to certain questions. He went with them. Upon his arrival at police headquarters Dr. McLeod was put through the "third degree" by the officials.

Dr. McLeod sent for his attorney, former Senator Charles H. Innes, to hurry to him.

The report of Medical Examiner Frank Harris, when the first suit case, containing the torso of Miss Geary, was found, said he was convinced that the body had been dismembered by some surgeon or more than one surgeon. He intimated that if the mystery was ever solved, it would lead the investigators to some practitioner of high standing.

The warrant upon which Dr. McLeod was arrested was issued yesterday by Chief Justice Brown of the municipal court. It charges him with the murder of the girl, reading the same as the warrants issued for Crawford and Howard. The police believe they will be able to prove that it was he who dissected the body before it was taken away in the separate suit cases.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN MINNEAPOLIS

Three Children Dead, Another Can't Live and Their Mother Is Dying—Believed Latter Committed the Crime.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Stella Brennan, wife of James Brennan, a fireman, and her eleven year old son, Leo, were fatally injured and are at the city hospital, while three other children are dead, as the result of a tragedy at their home this morning. The woman says a stranger shot the children first, through a window, and then herself. The police think Mrs. Brennan did the shooting herself. She is the stepmother of the children, and is believed to have become deranged through jealousy of them.

RECEIVED BY PRESIDENT.
Prince Louis of Battenberg in Washington Yesterday.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg was received by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. The prince was the bearer of a personal message of good will from King Edward to President Roosevelt and was presented to the President by Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador.

The presentation was made the occasion for a brilliant reception. Last night the prince was entertained by the British ambassador and Lady Durand gave a state dinner to their distinguished house guest, followed by a large reception and ball.

Save for the absence of military honors Prince Louis' entry to the capital yesterday has been invested with as much ceremony as that which made memorable the greeting to Prince Henry of Prussia several years ago. This has been the busiest day he has spent since he arrived off Annapolis Wednesday.

ANTI-JEWISH EXCESSES.
Have Been Raging for Three Days at Kieff.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—The Tablet prints the following despatch from the Jewish corner of three houses in Kieff.
"Anti-Jewish excesses have been raging here for three days and all the Jewish shops and many private houses have been totally destroyed. The number of Jewish victims is large and children and old people have been barbarously murdered while the military and police looked on with cynical indifference. The situation is desperate."
The Lokal Anzeiger's Kieff correspondent represents the situation as improved. Friday, says the correspondent, passed quietly. The number of dead on both sides is about 100 but many hundreds of persons were wounded and mangled and the city presents a horrible appearance.

Some laborers have returned to work. Street railways are resuming and other railways are making ready for business.

CZAR'S UKASE OF PARDON

Includes all Political Prisoners in Certain Classes.

ALSO STRIKES AND OTHERS

Amnesty Extended Not Alone to Those Already in Prison, But to Those
Who Are Not Yet
Tried.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The ukase of the czar, granting amnesty, proclaims that free pardon is extended to all political prisoners coming in certain categories enumerated in the decree, as well as participants in the strikes and the persons held responsible for breaking contracts. The pardon extends not only to those in prison, but to those who have not yet been tried or sentenced.

Anti-Jewish Disorders.
Yesterday Count Witte and Prince Opatensky received the leaders of the progressive constitutionalists party, including prominent members of the municipality. Anti-Jewish disorders are reported from Theodosia, where a number of Jews and others were burned to death. In a revolutionary outbreak in Kostroma many were killed or wounded. Rioting and anti-Jewish outrages occurred at Saratoff, where many shops were plundered. A bomb was thrown during the conflicts between rioters and soldiers and several were killed or wounded.

A despatch from Rostoff on Don gives official figures of Wednesday's rioting as thirty-four killed and 159 severely injured.

A GLADSTONE STATUE.

Unveiled in the Strand in London This Afternoon.

London, Nov. 4.—The statue of the late William E. Gladstone, unveiled in the Strand this afternoon, was by John Morley. A great crowd of prominent Liberals attended the exercises.

ASTOR PAYS ALIEN TAX.

Former American Tells Port Officials He Is an Englishman.

New York, Nov. 4.—William Astor, son of William Waldorf Astor, was called on to pay a $2 tax as an alien yesterday before being admitted to the United States on his arrival here yesterday on the steamer eddie from Liverpool. This tax was levied under the act of the United States immigration laws requiring a head tax of $2 for every alien landing in this country. Mr. Astor said in reply to a question as to his citizenship that he was an English subject.

William Waldorf Astor, one of the largest holders of real estate in this city, lives in London and some years ago renounced his American citizenship and became a British subject.

TO GATHER IN THE WIGWAM.

Red Men to Be Addressed by Their Great Sachem.

A special council of Iroquois Tribe, No. 16, will be held Tuesday evening, November 7, at 7 o'clock. Every Red Man in the hunting grounds is asked to be present. Great Sachem G. Frank Connor of Massachusetts and Vermont will be in the wigwam to meet the chiefs and give a long talk on the history of the Red Men of the Iroquois. An invitation is extended to the chiefs of the East River Tribe. Let every chief be present. Corn and venison will be served.

SAVED CHILD'S LIFE.

Little One Lying in Cradle, Was Alone in Burning House.

Franklin, Nov. 4.—The house of Fred Messier was totally destroyed by fire yesterday noon. The fire was discovered breaking out in the roof, by Merrill Gono, who broke open the front door of the house and going in found, lying in a cradle, a young child nearly suffocated with the smoke and heat. Mrs. Messier has gone out and locked the house. The cause of the fire is unknown.

POBABLY SUICIDE.

Body of Eugene C. Cox Found in Blue Hills Reservoir.

Quincy, Mass., Nov. 4.—The body of the boy, found yesterday in the Blue Hills reservoir, was identified today as that of Eugene C. Cox of Medford. He started for his work in a clothing store in Charlestown on the morning of October 24th and had not been seen since. It is supposed that he committed suicide.

Former Montpelier Woman.

Montpelier, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Frank L. Purdew of Brookline, Mass., who is reported in the Boston papers as being injured in an automobile accident at Boston last Thursday, was formerly a resident of this city, having lived here with her first husband, the late Dayton P. Jones, who was a brother of H. J. M. Jones. Mrs. Purdew has experienced several accidents since her removal to Massachusetts.

The automobile in which she was riding was caught between two electric cars and Dr. Purdew, her husband, was badly cut by falling glass. Mrs. Purdew's injuries are not serious.

RELEASE ON THURSDAY.

Counterfeiter Saulsbury Is a Physical Wreck.

Rutland, Nov. 4.—John D. Saulsbury, the counterfeiter, who was arrested at Poultney last fall, will be released from the House of Correction next Thursday. His sentence would have expired some time ago had he not forfeited his time allowance for good behavior by stealing.

When Saulsbury first entered the institution he seemed to be thoroughly penitent, and as he was a mechanic of considerable ability, Superintendent Morgan believed that he would be a useful prisoner. He was given many liberties in order to do the repairing about the institution and everything ran smoothly for a while. It was finally discovered that various articles were missing from the store room, among them being a considerable quantity of tobacco. The drug room was also entered and various drugs and medicines were taken. The identity of the thief was finally brought to light by the confession of a prisoner to who Saulsbury had sold some of the stolen tobacco. It developed that Saulsbury had worked up quite a business selling the stolen tobacco to the other prisoners. He gained entrance to the store rooms with keys which he made.

When Saulsbury entered the prison he was just recovering from the morphine habit. He has not taken any of the drug during his confinement but has been allowed to take medicine sent him by a New York firm. His health has failed him during the last few months and he is now said to be a physical wreck.

FIRE IN BURLINGTON

Does $7,000 Damage

Rutland Railroad Roundhouse Partially Destroyed Last Night—No Engines Were Burned.

Burlington, Nov. 4.—The Rutland Railroad roundhouse south of lower So. Champlain street was damaged by fire to the extent of $7,000 last night and rendered practically valueless. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been the too close placing of waste near the boiler. The blaze was discovered by James Kaley, night coal shoveler at the roundhouse. A general alarm brought all the fire apparatus to the place.

Ten barrels of oil caused the fire to spread with great rapidity. There was only one engine in the building and that was run out at once. A Pullman car standing on the track nearby was slightly scorched. The walls of the building remain standing but about everything else was burned. The building was about 70 years old, having been previously used as a roundhouse by the Central Vermont railroad. The firemen fought creditably and had the fire under control in less than an hour.

Another Small Fire.

Another alarm of fire was turned in from box 43 at the police station at 11:05 last evening, caused by the burning of the lace curtains in the apartments of Mrs. W. K. Walker in the Walker block. Mrs. Walker was lighting the gas when the match set fire to the curtains. She telephoned the police station and the blaze was quickly extinguished.

LIFE PAID THE PENALTY.

Mrs. Machie, Missionary, Had Seized the Chinese Idols.

London, Nov. 4.—A despatch to the Daily Express from Hong Kong says that the Linchun massacre was due to the unhappy action of Mrs. Machie, who on the refusal of some of the members of a native sect to desert from worshipping the idols they carried, seized the idols and declined to restore them to their owners. Thereupon the infuriated processionists surrounded and destroyed the mission and murdered the inmates. They then murdered and threw their bodies into the river. The mob did not interfere with the Chinese priests who resided in the neighborhood.

ROOSTER SCARED HER.

And Mrs. Salem White's Condition Is Quite Serious.

Bennington, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Salem White, who lives near Bennington Falls, is the victim of a peculiar and what may develop into a serious accident. Some days ago she went into the poultry yard and broke open the front door. The fowls in a vicious game rooster which resented the intrusion of the henery, and flying at Mrs. White, drove both its spurs into the back of her hand. The wounds were small, only two small punctures through the skin, but the hand has now become badly swollen and there are indications of blood poisoning.

$20,000 LOSS AT BROCKTON.

Upper Stories of Clark Block Guttered by Fire This Morning.

Brockton, Mass., Nov. 4.—Fire this morning gutted the upper stories of Clark's block, causing the loss of $20,000. The heaviest loss is B. E. Jones' corner, dry goods dealers. Two firemen were injured.

HELSINGFORS IS QUIET.

Negotiations for Agreement Between the Workmen and Professional Men.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 4.—The city is quiet today. Negotiations are proceeding between the working men and professional men of all classes, to reach an agreement for joint political action.

255 DEER KILLED.

Number Will Not Be Half So Large as Last Year.

Stowe, Nov. 4.—The number of deer reported up to date to Commissioner Thomas is 255 and will probably not reach half the number killed last year.

PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY

F. B. Mudgett, One of Barre's
Prominent Citizens.

HE WAS ILL THREE WEEKS

Was Stricken With Acute Nephritis on the Day Following Resignation as Superintendent for Harrison
Granite Company.

After an illness of twenty days, Fred E. Mudgett, one of Barre's prominent citizens, died yesterday of uremia, brought on by acute nephritis. Three weeks ago today he resigned his position as superintendent for the Harrison Granite Company to accept a position as superintendent for the Flint Granite Company of Albany, N. Y., intending to leave the following Monday for the latter city. But the next day (Sunday) he was stricken with nephritis, and from that day his decline was steady, in spite of skilled medical treatment. Uremia developed, and during the last three days the patient was in a state of coma, so that all realistic time was only a question of a short time before the end. Death came at 4:45 yesterday afternoon.

His death will be keenly felt, for in the 24 years of his residence in Barre Mr. Mudgett had built up a wide circle of acquaintances, by all of whom he was warmly regarded. He entered into the life of the community as few men do. In the social, commercial and civic life of Barre he took a prominent part, being greatly interested in the advancement of his city. No banquet was quite complete without Fred Mudgett absent, and the spirit of hospitality reigned when he arose to respond to a toast and better still when he gracefully did the toastmaster's part. As a business man he had few equals here. Of a keen mind, he was thoroughly acquainted with the granite industry, which showed itself in his work for the Harrison Granite Company and which received a fitting reward by his appointment to the superintendency of the Flint Granite Company at Albany.

Civic problems appealed to him with much force, and he kept a close knowledge of the affairs of the municipality. In the days of the old village charters he served as bailiff. He never held office under the city charter, but two years ago he was a candidate for mayor, being defeated by Mayor Barley after a close campaign. In military affairs he also took great interest, having been in the late 80's, captain of Company E, Vermont National Guard. Fraternity life claimed a large part of his attention and received his hearty support. To the welfare of the Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal) he contributed in large measure.

Fred B. Mudgett was born in Belfast, Me., October 18, 1856. He obtained his early education in the public schools of Belfast and later he attended a business college at Augusta, Me. As a young man he went to Vinal Haven, with his parents, and entered into the granite business. He showed marked ability and was promoted to foreman. From Vinal Haven he came to Barre, 24 years ago, when the granite business here was just beginning. He was first engaged as superintendent at the plant of Dunham & Gordon, one of the first firms to do business here. Later he was foreman for the National Granite Company and in the summer of 1890 he began work for W. H. Harrison, and he continued as superintendent of the Harrison Granite works until the day when he was taken ill.

Mr. Mudgett was a member of the New England Order of Protection. He leaves, besides his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Mudgett of 33 Park street, a wife and two daughters, Montie Florence and Ruth Esther, and one brother, E. A. Mudgett of San Francisco, Cal., who has been with his father for several days.

The funeral will be at the home at 2:30 Monday afternoon and will be strictly private, the Rev. C. E. Freeman and Rev. F. A. Poole officiating. The friends of the deceased will be given an opportunity to view the remains at the house between the hours of eleven and two on that afternoon.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CLUB.

Appeal for Aid to Insure Its Being Continued.

About a year ago a number of our citizens who believed there were many young men in our city that were in need of a suitable place where could pleasantly and profitably spend their leisure hours, organized a young men's club. They rented a fine suite of rooms in the Worthen block, which were adapted in every way for the object desired, and fitted them up with a piano, papers, magazines, a pool table and other games, which usually interest young men, and planned for other things which would be beneficial in the future. It was hoped that by this time there would be enough members to, in a large measure, pay the running expenses of the club, but in this there is a serious disappointment, so much so that at a recent meeting of the directors of the club the matter of discontinuing was discussed.

It was decided, however, that before definite action should be taken a special effort would be made to enlarge the membership and to secure contributions sufficient to warrant a continuance of the work. The ministers of the different churches have kindly consented to present the situation of the club to their congregations tomorrow, and a large committee will make a canvass for new members during the coming week. Should these efforts fail of success, the club will doubtless be abandoned, which we believe would be a serious thing for our young men and the future interests of our entering city, from a moral, social and business standpoint.

We believe that the citizens of Barre should give their moral and financial support to an organization of this kind as far as necessary, not only from philanthropic but from purely selfish reasons, as their business and other interests cannot fail of being benefited by what the club will do for our young men.

E. M. T.

AT HOME AGAIN.

Mrs. S. P. Scott Who Was Lost in Burlington.

Burlington, Nov. 4.—Mrs. S. P. Scott, the aged woman who has been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Languevin, 227 Main street, for the past few days, yesterday by former friends in this city, Mrs. William J. Russell of 33 Grant street for the past few days has been expecting Mrs. Scott, who left friends in Montpelier, where she was stopping, to come to this city to be Mrs. Russell's guest for a few days. Mrs. Russell had become alarmed for her safety and had written to Montpelier.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Scott was taken to Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Beecher. Mrs. Scott is well-to-do. She owns property at Johnson and the Mrs. Davis referred to is the woman who occupies Mrs. Scott's home. She is the mother of Julian Scott, the well known painter of the State Capitol dome.

When Mrs. Scott appeared at the Languevin home she asked for a family named Comstock. This family lives on Elm street in Montpelier.

BOTH PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Comstock Brothers of Corinth Will Be Tried Nov. 21.

Chelsea, Nov. 4.—Attorney Stanley C. Wilson was at Cookville in Corinth on Thursday to assist the towns grand jurors, Gilbert Blake, in prosecuting the following cases: State vs. Alvah Comstock for keeping and permitting to run at large a deer hound, and the same for hunting on Sunday; and State vs. Will Comstock for hunting on Sunday. In all three of the cases the respondents pleaded not guilty and not being represented by counsel the cases were continued until November 21st. The above prosecutions were all commenced by Game Warden J. Berton Pike of Marshfield. Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington was the justice before whom the cases were brought and Deputy Sheriff W. E. Worthley of Washington was the officer who made the arrests. The respondents are brothers and both Corinthians.

BISHOP HAMILTON TO PRESIDE.

At the Vermont Methodist Conference at Morrisville.

The semi-annual meeting of the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which held its sessions in Washington, D. C., has assigned the presidency of the Vermont conference which meets in Morrisville, April 18, 1906, to Bishop J. W. Hamilton of San Francisco. He was elected bishop by a general conference in 1903, Bishop Moore, who presided last year, being the only other bishop elected at that time. Bishop Hamilton is an eloquent preacher and lecturer and is greatly beloved throughout Methodism. This is his first official visit to Vermont.

Hampered by Grafters.

P. J. Halvosa, of Barre, state organizer for the American Federation of Labor, was in the city this morning, says the Montpelier Journal, while on his way to Northfield to solicit contributions for the year book to be issued by the Federation. His work has been hampered somewhat by the operations of some advertising grafters who have been raising money in different parts of the state by obtaining it in advance on contracts for advertising which they represent for this book. There were six in the gang, originally, but two are now doing time in Massachusetts, one in New Hampshire and the two working in Vermont were apprehended in Rutland and are now in the house of correction for 18 months at the expiration of which time they will again be prosecuted by the Federation with the view of landing them in state prison for a term of years. The Federation is to do all that it can to make good the damage done by these grafters and Mr. Halvosa believes that as he is well known in this vicinity, their work will not interfere with his to any marked degree.

TWO BIDS FOR PHYSICIAN

Each One Offers to Do City's Work For $300.

NEITHER ONE ACCEPTED

City Council Refers the Matter to the Charity Committee to Make Recommendations—Refuse to Pay Quinlan.

A special meeting of the city council was held last evening when bids for city physician were opened. There were two bids, one from Dr. Peaslee, who offered to do the work for $300 a year, and the other from Drs. Miller and Clemmens of the Emergency hospital, who will do the work of city physician for $300 a year, or without furnishing the medicine $250, or they will look after the poor sick and give one bed in the hospital for $750 a year, or give a bed in the hospital along for $500 a year. The bids were referred to the charity committee to make recommendations.

A communication from W. C. Quinlan stated his refusal to keep up the water tub on Prospect street, unless the city pay him $5 a year. A motion was made to pay it, but was voted down.

INTO UNLIGHTED DITCH.

Two Teams Drove on Hill Street Last Evening.

Eugene Leonard and G. M. Douglass, with his son, Walter, were driving up Hill street last evening about six o'clock, the latter's team being a few rods behind Mr. Leonard. It was very dark and the first team's movements could not be seen from Dr. Douglass' team. There was an uncovered ditch part way across the road at the corner of Hill and Liberty streets. There was no rail around it, neither was there any lantern to warn people. The result was that the first team was overthrown and Dr. Douglass' horse was killed in all over. The occupants of both teams were thrown out.

Mr. Douglass' horse went clear to the bottom of the ditch, and in his frantic efforts to get out broke the harness and wagon, until he freed himself and struggled out of the hole. None of the occupants of the wagons was badly hurt, but all were well shaken up.

A city employee came along with a lantern just as the men were trying to straighten out their teams.

FOR CHAMPIONSHIP OF VERMONT SCHOOLS

Goddard Foot Ball Players Went to Burlington Today to Play the Burr
& Burton Seminary of Manchester.

Goddard seminary's foot ball team left this morning for Burlington, where they will play Burr & Burton academy, on Centennial field, this afternoon. The result of this game will decide the state championship of preparatory schools. The teams will line up as follows:

GODDARD
Thomas, L. C. r. b. Olsen
Towley, L. C. r. b. Berry
D. Stone, L. C. r. g. Houghton
Brown, C. r. b. L. Clark
H. Abbott, L. C. r. g. Towley
Fuller, L. C. r. b. Oden or Clark
Colvin, L. C. r. b. Sawyer, McDonald
L. Stone, L. C. r. b. Knapp (capt.)
H. Stone (capt.), L. C. b. Horsford
L. Abbott, L. C. r. b. Booth

The game will be called sharp at 2:45 this afternoon. Dr. Cloudman, physical director of the University of Vermont, will referee the game, while Pattison, also of Vermont, will act as umpire. Manager Chubb of the local team says that "a hot, even and interesting game is expected."

Manager Grout of Burr and Burton says that he thinks if Goddard plays a bona fide school team (as they will) that the Manchester boys chances to win are about even.
